More Event Information:

UniSport Nationals events provide students a great opportunity to represent their university while connecting with fellow student athletes on a trip together. We encourage you to have a good look through the event website including the event schedule.

Level of experience required

This event is only open to students who are proven experienced competitive skiers or snowboarders. To be approved to attend, students must be able to demonstrate prior race experience in their discipline and be confident competing safely in a race environment. DUSA reserves the right to decline nominations where a student's experience or skill level cannot be verified as suitable for competition.

How can I apply to represent Deakin?

Register your interest for the Deakin Dragons Snow team – CLICK HERE

If selected, you will be provided with a link to complete the DUSA payment and a team code to then register for the event with UniSport.

Due Dates/Timeline:

28th June: DUSA Payment and registration closes at 11.59pm.

29th June: Your place in the team will be confirmed via email and your uniform ordered. At this point your DUSA payment becomes non-refundable but if you need to withdraw, you will keep any uniforms ordered.

29th June: Begin registering for the event with UniSport. Link via this page.

19th July: UniSport standard registrations close.

25th August: All UniSport registrations close.

Team Manager

DUSA Sport requires a student leader for each of our representative teams. A team will not be nominated for the UniSport Nationals without a team manager. If you are interested in taking on this role, please contact the DUSA sport team via email.

Transport

All students are to arrange their own transport to and from the event. The team can communicate to arrange ride shares, etc.

Accommodation

Shared accommodation is TBC

Uniforms

DUSA will order you an off-field uniform kit. All students are expected to provide their own snow gear.

Academic Extension Requests (for selected students)

The event takes place in Week 8 of Trimester 2. If you need to apply to your Unit Chair for any extensions, a letter of participation will be provided by DUSA. You can present the letter of participation to your Unit Chair. Extensions are at the Unit Chair's discretion.

Just send through the following details to dusasport@deakin.edu.au:
